The chief danger apprehended is in a sudden uprising the result of false reports scattered among people who may take action before the government can interfere."

The Methodist Foreign Missionary society has decided to make final appeal to the president against immediate enforcement of the law. The appeal as formulated says: "We carnestly beseech the president to use all means in his power to meet the just wishes of the Uhinese government, and if it be yet possible to scoure through diplomatic action such agreement between the two coantries as will secure peace and harmony."

as will secure peace and harmony."

The following was also issued for distribution: "In this time of peril to our missionary interests in China and of the dishonor to the fair name of our country because of the unrighteous and oppressive legislation we deem it of the utmost importance that the whole church look to God for his divine guidance and help. We therefore recommend that Sanday, May 28, be observed as a day of special prayer throughout the country, that our government may be led to just and right section in this emergency, and that such a solution of the pending question may be greached as shall save the missionary interests in China from disaster and secure just treatment to Chinese in this country."

Nothing whatever was said by the minister concerning any possibility that minister concerning any possibility that the Chinese legation in Washington would be withdrawn as a result of the enforcement of the law. And it can be stated on the authority of Secretary Gresham that he has not received any intihis government that would disturb the present friendly relations between the United States and China. The minister was of the opinion that no trouble would result from the law. The interview was pleasant throughout and lasted about twenty minutes.

A PROLONGED STATUS QUO

That Is the Probability Regarding the Chinese Exclusion Question.

Washington, May 18 .- The mandate of the Supreme court of the United States to the circuit Court for the southern dis trict of New York affirming the decision of that court in the exclusion cases wa of that court in the exclusion cases was trausmitted yesterday. This disposes of the matter finally unless the case again comes before the court on a new question. Present indications are pointing strongly to the assumption that a copy of the majority opinion of the court will certainly be forwarded to the Chinese government through diplomatic channels before any extended system of hostile action under the law will be inaugurated. Probabilities seem to favor a prolonged status que on the Chinese expussion question.

sout Regan's partner, C. M. Hays, who owned three-fifths of the property. They got this interest for $20,000. This trons action was followed by a slight conflict on the ground, but Regan held possession and has since made some further-developments which appear to have strengthened his case. The upshot of it all is the sale made today.

Some time ago Regan secured a bond in the Howe, Manhattan and Papeley groups, at De Lamar, for Milwaukee capitalists. This property has since developed very well, and it is thought the bond will be taken up. The Milwaukee ites are now here, and will go to be Lamar tomorrow. The consideration is $175,000 ash, and $175,000 stock. The first payment of $55,000 will fall due June 1st.
